June Bienstock

Redacted

Dear June:

You really captured the essence of Herb in the chapter you sent me. He was truly a remarkable human being and we all considered him a vital part of our F.E.G.S. family. We often talk about him and we miss the wonderful conversations, humor and just having him around.

I look forward to being with all of you at the September 28th forum.

Thank you very much for your check for $1,000 as a contribution to F.E.G.S. in memory of Herb. We will find some creative way of using these funds for the youth-at-risk with whom we work. It would be a fitting tribute to a man who helped us create the Operation Success Program to help youngsters in need.

Your contribution was made as a gift to F.E.G.S. for which no goods or services were provided in consideration for this gift. As you may know, the Internal Revenue Code provides that no deduction will be allowed for separate contributions of $250 or more unless that taxpayer substantiates the contribution with a written acknowledgment from the organization to whom this gift was made. Accordingly, we suggest that you keep this letter with your tax records.

I look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

Dear June,

It was wonderful to see you at the Awards Ceremony last week. So many people commented on how elegant and beautiful your presentation was. Herb was and you are very special to all of us at FECS and I'm so glad you were able to be with us at the Awards Ceremony to present the Herb Bienstock Personal Achievement Award.

This letter is also to acknowledge receipt of your contribution of $1,000, designated for the Herb Bienstock Memorial Fund at FECS, for which we are truly grateful. Thank you so much for your continued support of our Awards program.

This letter also serves to acknowledge that your contribution was made as a gift to F.E.G.S., for which no goods or services were received. The Internal Revenue Code provides that no deduction will be allowed for separate contributions of $250.00 or more unless the taxpayer substantiates it with a written acknowledgement from the organization to whom this gift was made. Wishing you and your family a good summer and all the best for the coming year.

Warmly,

Gail A. Magaliff
